members of the Australian national team which so proudly reached the 1974 World Cup finals in West Germany, it is with great in-dignation that I see so much Press coverage being given to the verbose utterings national coach Rudi Gutendorf.

REILLY

Rudi Gutendorf.

His latest outburst in a soccer publication of last week, stating: "If the players go, I go" — referring to some Socceroos possibly going overseas — is really the icing on the cake.

Every time one has the dubious privilege of reading this man's comments, they are more outrageous than the time before.

I seem to remember the only successful coach we have had, who got us to the World Cup finals, Rale Rasic, being sacked by the ASF for comments he made within the privacy of four walls.

Has Mr Gutendorf been allowed to forget that he is only an employee of the Federation? And if he is so hell bent on leaving the country, as he has said several times in the past year, let him go.

has sald several times in the past, e.g., go.

We have very capable men in the shape of Rale Rasic, Len McKendry and others, who can do the job equally as well without the related hysteria, which I believe is now affecting the players.
If Mr Gutendorf really sits down and analyses what he has done since arriving here, I doubt if an honest appraisal would reveal much.
Australia has been achieving similar results for years against top international teams and I doubt it anyone can call the most recent visitor, Northern Ireland, a top side.

On the Ball The Player's Viewpoint

There were players in that team who would ot get a regular game in our own Philips Lea-not get a regular game in our own Philips Lea-gue!

Getting back to the original point, I believe it would be in our best interests if several of our young players were allowed to go overseas. There they would receive the full-time atten-tion Gutendorf is asking for and be given ample opportunity to hone down the rough edges that still exist, the only provision being that they be available to Australia for the World Cup cam-naien

This would be real progress.

This would be real progress.

I also would be interested in the interpretation to the proposed ban in relation to the moral obligation of a player to better himself. Surely it is the right of every individual to do so.

In summation I believe that qualifying for the 1982 World Cup finals in Spain is absolutely esential for the development of the game in this country and the quícker everyone realises that,

I read with great amusement Mr Gutendort's claims that he discovered players such as Woodhouse, Chrisopoulos, Davidson, Krncevic and others.

These players have come through the ranks because of the impetus given to the game by the Australian presence in the 1974 World Cup finals and I would back that side against the present line-up, giving it a two-goal start.

There is still an awful lot of work to be done if we are to have any hope of qualifying for Spain. I am not jumping on the bandwagon like so many others — I believe we have no chance what-soever of reaching Spain as things are at the moment, and that causes me a great deal of alarm.

OVER TO THE AUTHORITIES

Ollerton Makedonia

The wanderlust that has marked the career of former Socceroo Peter Ollerton has again effected a change of clubs for the big blond atriker.

Ollerton has moved to State League club Makedonia here he joins a solid squad that boasts a dynamic forward trio of Robert Cullen, George McMillan and Gary Ward.

So where will Ollerton line up?

His last club J.U.S.T. used him as a sweeper, midfleider and striker, so Ollerton's versatility has been proven in the highest league in the land—the PSL.

Ollerton transferred to Makedonia for $10,000.

His previous clubs were Preston, North End and Blackpool in England and APIA, Ringwood City, Hellas, Marconi and J.U.S.T.

Players, style ncertai

The superficial judgement of happenings in soccer is something that continues to intrigue me.

The current feeling that the re-spectable results against England and Ireland virtually give Australia a passport to Spain for the World Cup finals is an example of this. In fact those games, with their big emphasis on defence and the contin-uing change of personnel and posi-tions in the Australian team rather perturbs me.

tions in the Australian team rather perturbs me.
Suddenly, with the preliminaries not far away, two of the key players, Ivo Prskalo and Jimmy Rooney, appear to be suspect according to some critics and perhaps even the coach himself.

The sudden selection of Jimbo

Muir, a player rejected by Rale Rasic, a good judge, especially of defensive players, typifies the continuing instability of the national squad.

We should remember that Rasic had a season-long look at Muir before deciding that he should replace him with David Jones a player incidentally for whom I have a lot of time.

I must say that in the Sydney game against England Muir gave Paul Mariner so much space we were lucky not to be five down at half time.

This was with Australia playing with two centre backs and a sweeper as it continued to do against I reland, as it continued to do against Ireland. There are any amount of tall centre backs in this country who I would expect to do well against teams knocking the ball a lot into the air as England and Ireland did.

Col Bennett, Steve Kokoska, Steve O'Connor and Jones, are some who would do well defensively if there were two of them covered by a sweeper who never ventures forward.

Such a defensive system really hides the weaknesses of central defenders when you have three in such close support of one another.
Even tall midfielders such as Murray Barnes and Henderson will do well.

But I wonder about Barnes and Henderson's ability in international competition when their lack of experience in the position will show, especially in a more attacking Australian team.

As I have said previously in these columns we are not playing Ireland or England in the World Cup preliminaries.

Neither, as a rule, will we be defending with backs to the wall.

We will need to develop cohesion in attack and sharp defenders who can handle themselves one against

That is not easy to get, even in a club side.

With half the season gone "Soccer Action" writers have assessed the promotion, top four and relegation prospects of teams in the PSL and the Victorian and NSW State Leagues.

Hail Heidelberg, as APIA, Saints go

There's a long way to go, but it looks like Heidelberg can hang on and bring the PSL championship trophy to Melbourne for the first time.

Heidelberg has a slight edge over rivals Sydney City and South Melbourne Hellas because it plays its most difficult remaining matches at home.

They are against Canberra, Adelaide City and Brisbane Lions. Sydney City and South Melbourne both must meet Marconi, Canberra and Adelaide City away.

Heidelberg's most difficult away games will be against Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions. No-one finds it easy in Brisbane. I expect Marconi to come good again and just edge out Adelaide City and Brisbane Lions No-one finds it easy in Brisbane.

The top four thus would be: Heidelberg, Sydney City, South Melbourne, Marconi.

At the other end of the ladder, St Geoge appears to be in the most serious trouble, followed by APIA which saddy lact goalscorers. I expect these two will have to apply for re-admission after finishing in the last two positions and being relegated.

Remaining matches of the leading championship contenders (home games in capitals): HEIDELBERG v. SYDNEY CITY. APIA-LEICHHARDT. Brisbane City, CANBERRA, Footscray, ADEL-AIDE CITY, St George, MARCONI, New-

CROATIA'S TITLE, GEORGIE FOR DROP! By CRAIG MACKENZIE

Makedonia or Croatia for the title - that is the message hammered out after a full round of 1980 State League games.

Mastermind Abonyi

makes Eagles fly

By KNUT WERNER

The battle for championship honours in the NSW State League always has appeared to be a clash between Melita and Olympic, for these sides have proved their superiority over the rest of the competition throughout the

Both teams have proved their superiority over the other 10 contenders and pre-tenders.

It looked early on as if Brian Edgley's Makedonia would comp away with the honour of State League champion but the Croatia machine has gradually gathered momentum and now is running smoothly alongside its arch rival.

Croatia has had more call to test the merits of its player depth because of injuries to Tommy Cumming and Alan Kerr while Makedonia has proved to be relatively injury free and the most stable combination in the league.

And of course Croatia has been called upon to provide Victoria with regular players for representative games, a burden that state coach Len McKendry has not placed upon Brian Edgley's team.

first half of the season.

On the other hand the relationship between Croatia coach John Gardiner and McKendry has yielded improvements in Croatia's methods and its organisation, important factors in modern day soccer and crucial to the consistency required to run out champion at the end of an arduous season.

The key to Makedonia seems to be Edgley's ability to come up with the right midfield combination now that his back four and front trio have proved so effective and stable.

Madedonia has Claude Lucchesi, Ljube Petrovski, Jeff Faulkner and Eric Lesbirel vying for three midfield positions now that the feared Robert Cullen, George McMilan and Gary Ward are obvious choices up front in a 4-3-3 formation.

At the back Makedonia has proved its stability by having the least amount of goals against and the beauty of its back four lies in the adventurous nature of both full backs, Mike Rainey and Steve Beech.

Perhaps player depth is the clue, as Makedonia does not seem as well off as Croatia in this department and the time may come when replacements have to be found for injuries to Cullen, Lucchesi or say Flavelle.

And I firmly believe that Rainey and Beech can be caught out provided an early ball is played wide after a Makedonia attack has broken down. Rainey in particular is a mystery for he can go from brilliant to an also-ran in the space of a few seconds.

Creatia lack batter avantage.

Croatia looks better organised at the back where John Gar-diner can direct traffic behind the best stopper in the State League, Steve Kokoska.

League, Steve Kokoska.

However Steve Kokoska.

However Steve Short has something of Rainey's changeability about his play and Ante Bilaver is uncompromising but also the most notorious ball watcher in the league.

"In midfield Croatia has an abundance of tatent with Joe Tront, Keith Adams, Ken Murphy, Howard Andrews and Marker vying for what will be the spots once wee Cumming returns to play alongside Carl Gilder and Noel Mitten.

Mitten.
Gilder and Mitten are not having great seasons befitting their goal scoring talent but when you consider Croatla's place on the ladder then it becomes clear that should these two strikers fire the rest of league would be left in their wak.

wak.

The organisation of both sides could be an important clue to deciding the outcome of the race for the title and given a full squad to choose from I fancy Croatia to sneak home by the narrowest of margins.

And what of the battle below

Hakoah, Green Gully, Croydon and Juventus stand out as candidates for third and fourth spot.

Hakoah is one of the enigmas of the State League.

enigmas of the State League.
For the past two years it has looked to have a ery talented squad of players but results do not support what appears to be a classy outfit on paper.
Green Gully appears to lack a top-class striker to help round off its squad but it regualry proves a hard mut to crack, as does fellow contender Croydon.
Juventus appears partic-

Juventity appears particularly strong, with the best striker in the league at present in Bobby McGuinness, and Mendo Ristovski and Frank Munro, both signed from Hellas this year.

Munro, both signed from Hellas this year.

Although Hakoah has good depth in its squad I can't help feeling that it will be where said of cartler season the where for some season the players seem unable to live up to the promise they show.

Heart and endeavour are commendable attributes in any team but I feel Croyon lacks the quality to much it will be the promise they show.

At the other end of the table Slavia looks odds-on for the drop to Metro Division One although it is playing with great spirit and little good fortune.

George Cross could depart the State League for the first time since it entered the league in 1958.

The Cross apparently lacks the money to buy the two quality players that would go a long way to alleviating its current problems, so it seems destined for the drop.

Postponements have disrupted the second round of the Philips Cup this week.

Three games have been defer-red — Heidelberg v. South Mel-bourne, Adelaide City v. Green Gully Ajax and Canberra City v. Makedonia.

The Victorian Soccer Federation requested postponement of the latter two games to avoid further league disruption following the wash-outs last Sunday.

Newcastle v. Marconi and APIA v. Sydney City are the top two drawcards of what is left of the second Philips Cup round.

cance and Paul Reancy will cove a major stumbling block to the Marconi strikers.

Socceroo John Coyne has streng-thened the APIA midfield since transferring from Brisbane City, and Peter Wilson is playing as well as ever in defence.

Wilson in particular will make life hard for Ken Boden and Mark Trenter, but Sydney Csity should win nevertheless because it has greater overall talent — Steven-son, Watson, Silva, Barnes, Mullen to name just a few.

The one State League team almost certain to advance to the quarter-finals is Spearwood Dalmatinac of Perth.

Dalmatinac, coached by former Footscray J. U.S.T. centre forward Ivan Pikl, should beat Beograd Woodville at Hindmarsh Stadium tonight (Wednesday).

St. George, playing much better since John Russell and Ernie Campbell were recruited, should boost its morale by advancing to the quarter-finals at the expense of Blacktown City.

Brisbane Lions should go a long way in the Cup this year. Certainly Mt. Gravatt will not halt the Lions' advance at Perry Park.

Ron Millman and Paul Ontong, supported from behind by Steve Hogg, will prove too good for the Mt. Gravatt defence, while Jim Hermiston and Col Bennett will ensure that Mt. Gravatt does not Branko Buljevic, who or chestrates the Hellas attack, will have another intriguing battle with Arthur McMilan. When they were team mates at Heidelberg, old either have an advantage over the other at the state of Sunday as the most important of the season, as they meet Sydney City in the league on Sunday week. It is so markedly different this season in which, dogged by a spate of injuries — and the loss of Kenny Boden — KB United is not firing as a team should.

The conclusion that Boden meant even more to the team than was general-ly granted is inescapable the funds to buy them.

The dismal "goals for" column on the Philips League points score table tells its own story. The defence has worked overtime in most matches because undue pressure has been forced on it by indifferent attacking performances.

But the club has been outstanding in promoting the code. That has been a costly undertaking and now that the team has fallen on hard times in competition play, gate takings have slumped, income has lessened while costs have not and com-mitments must be met.

Consequently there is little or no financial surplus with which to play — or pay.

That is the crux of the problem and of Alan Vest; uphannings and un-

It is a problem that must be quickly solved. If KB United and Vest are not to Against Sydney City, the Saints adopted man-to-man marking throughout the field. This worked well everywhere except in the area where it is most important—their own penalty area. Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions came up with the best Lions came up with the best possible result for both when they drew 1-1 in the local derby at Perry Park.

Yet City, who if anything possibly might have had more need of the full points because of its lowly position, came within four minutes of achieving that objective.

City was heading to fulltime on the back of Barry Kelso's opportunist goal in the 67th minute, when the vital break-through came for Lions, who had not been beaten since losing to Marconi in Sydney on May 4.

Ron Millman made a break along the right and his cross ricocheted off David Ratcliffe and sliced into the middle, where Paul Ontong was wait-ing to finish off.

Ironically, Ontong was only playing up front because he had missed the previous round because of injury, and coach Matt Carson decided to leave promising youngster tham Wilson in the right k position.

City's goal had come following a perfect through bail by midfielder Frank Plmblett to right winger Willle Conner.

match this season, crossed almost onto the crossbar, where Tony Scanlan could not gather safely.

Visiting goalkeepers will all know how inconvenient the late afternoon sun is at Perry Park, when they are standing at the southern end of the ground, and there's no doubt this situation did not help Scanlan.

He juggled and lost it and the ball eventually fell to the advancing Kelso, who had the simple task of slotting it home.

Up until halftime, the match had been a typical local derby, with plenty of tension, tight

Lions had some greatchances to score in this session, possibly the best when Millman burst through and with only Kim Wishart to beat, he knocked his shot less than a foot wide of the post.

Right on halftime. Steven Hogg found himself in an equally imposing position, but his shot was too direct and Wishart was just able to dive and force a corner.

But City also had its mo-ments, as Scanlan did well to dive and pluck down an aw-kwardly swerving, long range shot from Kelso.

And later, Larry Gaffney blasted a fierce drive goal-wards, but young Wilson, Lions' best defender on the day, threw himself sideways to block with his head, an action which almost rendered him unconscious.

Early in the first half, little Jim McCluskey looked like scoring from in close, but he would have been better serving Bobby Hamilton, rather than trying to turn on the spot, thereby wasting a precious split second.

Wishart pulled off a mag-nificent save from a booming long range effort from Wilson and yet again Millman burst through the defence, but his final shot whistled over the Once these chances had by-passed Lions, they were then punished by City's goal, but again, as Lions have done sev-eral times this year, they showed great character to come from behind to pull the game out of the fire.

Big Col Bennett had yet an-other powerful game at centre back to back up Wilson's deter-mined tackling, but other usual consistent Lions players had an off day overall.

It was obvious from the first whistle that West Adelaide, as with just about every other side, had come to Marconi with the sole intention of gaining a draw.

It is very difficult for an attacking side to deal effectively with a nine man defence. For Marconi, which is desperately trying to stay in touch with the competition leaders, it must have been endlessly frustrating.

This became endlessly frustrating.

This became endy thin slowed and players begin to commit uncharacteristic fouls. Marconi camped in West Adelaide's territory for the whole of the first half and tried almost everything possible to break down the sight defence. Went it did get through it found little joy for Martin Crook was there every time giving a brilliant display.

The only tactic Marconi didn't use was the one I would have most expected, bearing in mind the 'gale' force westerly which was howling across the ground.

With men like Henderson and Byrne, who are on slouches with long range shots, I thought it would have been advantageous to work the ball forward and then play it back to these fellows. A shot from 35 metres in such blustery, swirting conditions would have been very hard to handle for any keeper.

We were given one example of what could happen, with a free kick taken by Robert Viert in only the 12th minute. From just on the edge of the area he drove a shot over the wall and had crook at full reach to tip the despite of the area he drove a shot over the wall and had frook at full reach to tip the despite of the area he drove a shot over the wall and had frook at full reach to tip the destination of the state of the series of the state of the play in the best. Marconi was pressing hard and had just missed a goal when West Adelaide broke up the centre.

The ball quickly travelled to Ian McKie who put through a well placed ball for Manuel Lopes. Big Jimbo Muir was actually in front in the race for the ball but Lopes somethow raced goal. The result was against the run of play and a 1.0 lead to West Adelaide in the 57th minute.

FOOTSCRAY JUST 0 CANBERRA CITY 1

Just as the gods smiled on Rocco Ille earlier is season, they are being kind to Canberra's w coach, John Brown.

Tony Brennan, who was unable for so long o come up with the type of form that would ustify his $20,000 transfer fee, finally is turn Brown brought back Roy Stark who had been out of favor, and Isaac Farrell who had been warming the bench, and both have added venom to Canberra's teeth.

Brown has been lucky not only with players it with results — at least the result agains

Although the match featured many exciting attacks — most of them breakaways — a draw would have been a fairer result.

Certainly, Brown would be the first to admit that the winning goal was a lucky one.

Tony Brennan played a long through ball out of middleld, for Terry Byrne breaking from the centre. Dennis Boland raced out of his penalty area and would have got to the ball ahead of Byrne had it not stuck in the only puddle on the pitch.

The water slowed the ball down for Byrne who reached it before Boland and shot it into the empty goal from 20 metres, with Kiri Kyriakouleas racing back in a vain attempt to reach the ball before it found its target.

Stark acknowledged the role played by that puddle when, for the benefit of the crowd, he ceremoniously cleared some of the water out of it with his hands as the teams returned after half time.

However, there were signs of a recovery on Saturday.

Kyriakouleas destroyed Sebastian Giam-paolo and will claim the scalps of many other top forwards before the season ends. He also cut off many dangerous runs by Brennan.

Jim Kondarios again was indestructible in the centre of the defence, and Boland con-tinued playing well not only as goalkeeper, but also as sweeper, because Footscray uses a daring offside trap.

Jim Kriaris, playing his second PSL game since 1978, made a few mistakes but also did a lot of excellent defending and will be a valu-able member of the team.

Jim O'Reilly, yet to come back after being refused a transfer to Makedonia, further will strengthen the defence.

Joe Picioane was back to his best in mid-field, where Vlatko Belic, Zoran Ilioski and Mirko Rujevic also played well.

Rujevic had a particularly impressive first half, while Ilioski moved out of midfield, into attack after half time.

Footscray pressed hard with the wind in the second half, but Danny Moulis maintained his tight rein on Footscray danger man Zdravko Lujic, which made it difficult for the home side to break through.

It was left back Rob O'Shea who posed the greatest danger to Footscray in the first half. He got away on a long pass from his brother John in the seventh minutes, Boland came out to meet him on the left, O'Shea tried a cross to the open goalmouth but it went narrowly behind the goal.

A minute later, John O'Shea passed to Giampaolo who relayed it to Rob O'Shea run-ning into the penalty area but Boland made a brilliant save.

Footscray's first shot came from Picioane in the 13th minute but Richard Wilson held it confidently.

The strong wind made ball control difficult for both sides, so it was a credit to them that they settled down to play the soccer they did.

In a brilliant Footscray move the ball trav-elled from Kondarios via Belic, Picioane and Rujevic, wide to Chris Petrov whose cross to the far post was a little too hard for Vasic to reach effectively with his head.

Then, Farrell played probably the greate pass of the game — an inspired cross-field ball to Moulis making a run on the opposite flank. Moulis had open territory in front of him and could have run on into the penalty area, but Petrov cut the move with a handball.

Byrne's goal came in the 25th minute, and Vasic put one in just after half time only to be ruled offside as rain started to fall.

However, Footscray now was even more vinerable to counter-attacks. A long through ball by Giampaolo sent Brennan away on a 30-metrer run but Kondarios showed incredible speed to catch him just inside the penalty area.

Back at the other end, Ilioski shot hurriedly across goal and as play turned again, Boland had to come out and slide at Brennan's feet. In the 60th minute, Brennan mssed from point-blank range after a free kick from Rob O'-Shea.

Pictoane laid the ball back for a powerful drive by Ilioski but Wilson tapped it over the bar, then Belic headed over from a Petrov

Kevin Keegan has played his last game for Hamburg and the harsh truth is the West Germans aren't exactly crying in their beer now that Kevin's gone.

You see, England's skipper isn't quite the hero he once was. He scored just nine league goals in 33 games this sea-son. He hasn't played two good games in succession. He almost dropped earlier this year. And, basides, at 29, Ham-burg reckon they've had the bast years out of Keegan.

Now he joins Southempton for 425,000 pounds. It's not nown what Keegan's cut will be, but, anyway, he certainly It's estimated he earns 300,000 pounds a year . . . mostly om outside football.

This is one of the reasons he's not so popular at Hamburg. commants reckoned he spent too much time away from potball. He missed sevaral training sessions, and this didn't alp his form.

He has an 80,000 pound three-year contract with Patrick Boots in France. Then there's a four-year contract with B.B.C. thought to be worth 5000 pounds a year.

His football annual earns 6000 pounds per year, while loured posters sell like hotcakes for 75p each.

Then there's his autobiography. The book is just out, yet it's topped the 40,000 sales. He also has weekly columns in German and British newspapers.

As extras there's . . . a Kevin Keegan jig-saw puzzle, Kevin Keegan Sportswear International Clothing, a record which sold half a million copies, a filmed coaching series, his life story is presently being prepared by a film producer, and he has a share in mitre footballs, etc.

So "Mighty Mouse," as he's known in Germany, could well afford to lose the 6000 pound bonus Hamburg were on to win the European Cup and the 6000 pounds they were on to win the German League.

TOM ANDERSON

St George's desperate SOS to Frank Arok to fly to Sydney from Yugoslavia to help them out of their present plight seems the last card in Saints' tattered pack.

plight seems the last card in Not that it's a bad idea — it's a good one, for if there's anyone who can cure the present malady at Saints it's Arok.

Whether he can do it in four weeks of course, is another matter, but at least he'll be able to point Saints' coach Raul Blanco in the right direction.

I have every respect for Frank Arok, having served under him as a player at Saints.

He's the epitomy of a thorough professional and a man who lives for his football.

The present dernise of Saints is, one that saddens me for, without doubt, they are one of the finest clubs in Australia.

They have a good administration, a wonderful social club, a marvellous stadium and a progressic outlook.

They have a good administration, a wonderful social club, a marvellous stadium and a progressic outlook.

Being a former coach, I don't like criticising coaches, especially here in Australia, where their pob is ultra difficult.

However, Saints' present coach, Raul Blanco, must shoulder a great deal of the blame for his team's present plight.

At the start of the season, I went along with his youth policy and, indeed, thought he was on the right track.

However, there was always a big doubt in my mind over the calibre of some of the players he recruited from the State League.

These players looked ordinary in the State League and now have proved to be below par in the PSL.

Also, the factics adopted by Blanco have been and should not happen.

And anyone having watched Saints in recent games will have to agree that many of the basic fundamentals of defensive play are missing.

Week after week, opposition players are being allowed freedom in the Saints' penalty area and this is proving disastrous.

It is obvious that Blanco needs help at present and it is obvious that he does not have this help in his coaching set-up at the club. Saints' directors have most probably realised this and that's why the SOS has been sent to Frank Arok.

I hope that the move is successful and that Saints get out of trouble.

I applaud the move of the proposed marketing plan to put soccer on the map.

It's about time something like this was done and the put with the WFL and NSW Rugby League and of course World Series Cricket who run their own marketing programme.

Also, the plan to make TV stars and household names of some of our Socceroos is commendable.

mendable.

However, I think before too much is sald about this, some action is required.

For like many other people, I am very disappointed over the "hon-event" of this our centennial year.

I have in my possession video films of the NSW v Norwich, England v Australia and the Sydney Australia of the Sydney Australia of the Sydney Australia of the Sydney Australia.

Yet if you study the films you discover that almost every effective Australian attack was a counter attack — often just a defensive clearance and a chase by our fast forwards.

Nearly all the cohesive soccer was played by the opposition.

Perhaps this is how Rudi Gutendorf intends to base his World Cup strategy — tight man-for-man marking in the West Germian style, with fast counter-attacks.

The goal came when Houssein Housseini burst through on the left and gave goalkeeper Brian Taylor no chance with a fierce 12 metre drive. Olympic was fortunate to have Gary Mier, Greg Ankudinoff and Housseini back in the team as all played a big part in the win.

team as all played a big part in the win.

Mier was very solid in goal, Ankudinoff gave a good defensive display and Houssein into only scored the goal but in midfield and attack was the best player on the field.

Olympic had several wasted chances in the first half. Kuringai came back strongly early in the second half but were unable to finish off the good work of Bobby Geegie and Bob Wheatley.

Olympic took charge in the final stages and only the fine work of goalkeeper Brian Taylor held them at bay.

Parramatta City won an important match when it defeated Manly-Warringah 32 at Cromer Part today.
The loss left Manlyn alone at the foot of the competition table with Parramatta now two points above.
Manly took an early lead when Graham Firrell picked up a weak clearance, bullock-ed his way through the defence and scored from six yards out. An attempted headed clear-ance by Manly full back Andy Wilson found his own net to put Parramatta back on terms after 27 minutes.

Bustling winger Joe Nawalu put manily back in front when he headed home from close range just before halftime.

John Forward cleverly worked the ball down the right wing before crossing to Peter Rogen who crashed in a beau-tiful goal from some 20 metres range.

With ten minutes of the match remaining, a Parramatta corner from the left wing hung in the wind eluding the Manly goalkeeper and Scott Mitchell scored.

The Metro Leagues were slightly disrupted by the stormy weather last weekend but the significant results in Division One were Doveton's 2-1 victory over Albion Rovers and Northcote's loss to Box Hill.

Juve looks good, Croatia to hold lead

The Croydon - Juventus clash is the pick of this weekend's round of State League matches.

Croydon and Juventus meet at Croydon Park in an encounter that will have an important bearing on the top four.

Juventus striker Bobby McGuinness loves to run wide creating space for himself inside and for his fellow front runners before turning in the bilank of an eye and leaving his opponent floundering.

McGuinness will not relish the narrowness of croydon Park yet his threat poses Croydon's defence with what should be an insurmountable problem and the black and whites should collect both points in a great match.

and whites should be great match.

In the middle of the park no-one will be in the middle of the park no-one will be in the middle of the park no-one will be in the middle of the park no the park no

Provided Alex Nelson continues doing the great job he has shown himself capable of as a ball winner and grafter in front of the Juve back four Croydon cluld be in for a thankless day up front.

If Tony Heery and Oscar Crono can cut a swathe through Croydon's well organ-ised defence with penetrating through balls then McGuinness and George Gillan could grab a couple of goals to seal the issue in the black and white favor.

Croatia will not allow Western Suburbs to shut it out as effectively as in the open-ing round of the season and the current State League champion should win well to further its claim for successive honors.

Frankston can hold Hakoah to a draw for the Baysiders look solid at the back but barren up front now that the striking talents of Martin Chivers are no longer on

The clash between Danny McCluskey and Graham French should be well worth watching but McClusky's new found tempered aggression should prove too much for the burly Hakoah striker.

Sunshine could add to George Cross's relegation worries and evergreen Ray Pocock gets the chance to advance up the league goal scoring list.

Green Gully can maintain its place in the four by accounting for Altona at Gully Reserve for the home team looks to have too much class in the shape of Jimmy Dunne, Billy Vojtek and Willie Vassailo.

Makedonia should have few problems in repeating its convincing defeat of Slavia in the opening round of the season.

Our guest tipster this week is Western Suburbs coach Jimmy Pyrgolios (pictu-red). Jimmy's selections with likely winners in capitals:

Melbourne's notorious weather played havoc with last weekend's State League games and the three postponed matches between Croydon and Western Suburbs. Frankston and Makedonia, Croatia jumped to the top of the ladder with its 3-1 drubbing of Sunshine and it looks like the Croatian machine is firing on all cylinders.

Slavia coach Tony Vrzina was displeased with the attitude and behaviour of some of his more experienced players and he told "Soccer Action" that the club would be looking to cut down on its temporary resident players to make way for two new players from over-CROATIA 3 Tront, Gardiner).

If Croatia continues in its present fashion then no-one will knock it off its perch at the head of the State League ladder.

That can be the only valid assessment of Croatia's 3-1 defeat of Sunshine at Chaplin Reserve last Sunday.

The Shiners went in at the break one up but the first half had been Croatia's territorially as the visitors had pressed forward and the Shiners looked to catch Croatia on the break.

Croatia tended to play the ball across the park, frustra-ting the two strikers, Noel Mitten and Carl Gilder.

Corner:

Croatia keeper Peter Blasby dived down but could only parry the ball out and John McNally, following in, slotted home from close range.

Croatia came out for the second half and immediately looked sharper and more determined.

Ken Murphy was more adventurous and Croatia's mid-field started to dominate after Joe Tront moved into the centre of the park.

The ball fell to Tront who led to a brilliant goal by Keith Adams.

Murphy went down the left and passed to Mitten whose first time ball went to Adams. The Croatian midfielder nutmegged a Sunshine defender, looked up and picked his spot before smashing a hard, low drive into the bottom left-hand corner.

This period of the game saw Croatia threaten to increase its lead and the Shiners could only hold on as up front Ray Pocock was well checked by Steve Kokoska.

A fierce drive by Gilder saw John Scholten diving at full stretch and pulling off a mira-culous save — easily the goalkeeping highlight of the match. match.
Croatia wrapped up proceedings in the 85th minute after Gilder won the ball in ascramble about 35 yards out from the Sunshine goal.

The lesson drummed home by this game was the size of the guil between the top three state League clubs and the bottom half of the table.

looked to be a class above its opponents.

Slavia coach Tony Vrzina was impressed with Juvenius and he described its effort as in patches the best I have seen this year but a triffe inconsistent.

Had was been our chances, that have seen outcome but no doubt, Juvenius is a line side.

Three minutes into the game, Slavia's overlapping full back Neville Haupt sent a great far-post cross from the right and John Lucchesi had the simple task of heading home with Jack Reilly stranded but the former Juventus player could only head wide.

In the 15th minute Mick McGorian broke through and when he seemed likely to race into goal, a timely professional foul from Juve sweeper Frank Munro brought down McGorian on the edge of the area.

Slavia wasted the resultant free kick and five minutes

Then, Juve settled and with Tony Heery and Oscar Crino playing well, began to take over in midfield and continued to dominate the middle of the park for the remainder of the match.

In the 29th minute, a scramble in Slavia's goal mouth saw the opportunism of Bobby McGuinness shine through and he scored after Slavia keeper Elvio Pugliese seemed unsighted as the ball went over the goal line.

One minute later, George Gillan flicked on a corner at the near post and Tony Heery, timing his run well, knocked the ball home from close range.

From then on Juve showed its class.

The third goal was a crashing second half shot from Gillan reminiscent of his disallowed goal against Frankston the previous week.

ston the previous week.

But this time, there was no doubt about the goal's validity as Gillan latched onto Liam Houston's ineffective clearing header and from 12 metres unleashed a thunderous driventa gave Pugliese no chance.

Juventus looks to be getting into top gear and if its present good form is matched with a fair amount of good fortune, then it should prove to be a worthy contender for third spot on the State League ladder.

Had Bill Morrey not wasted o many opportunities, Ajax could have won this game by t five.
y Vojtek and Steve Bennie sent Morrey away on long breakaway runs with good through balls but he persisted in running wide and blasting the ball over the top from hopeless angles instead of perhaps cutting it back, delaying, or even cutting in himself on the run.

It was a shame that Morrey could not complete the scoring end of his task, for he was great at everything else—fighting, running hard, working tirelessly.

Vojtek also worked hard and played some excellent forward passes, Jimmy Dunne was majestic in defence from where he organised the others and John Patten maintained his good form in defence as well as scoring with a diving header that made him Ajax's equal top scorer so far this season.

Apart from Stewart Blair in midfield and the fighting quali-ties of Sean Rooney in defence it was an awful performance.

Ajax came to scoring in the 20th minute when a hard shot by Patten was stopped on the line by Rooney.

Anton Dosen was shown the yellow card for grabbing Vojtek by the shirt — on Ha-koah's forward line!

Ajax had to wait until the 70th minute for its first goal. Morrey took a corner, Dave Perkin headed it on and Patten put it away with his diving header. A spectacular goal.

After Andy Segi had come on to replace Steve Bennie, Morrey got away on one of his countless runs, pushing the ball past Dosen and then hitting the post.

A great through ball from Vojtek sent Morrey away yet again in the 80th minute. This time he stopped and played the ball square to unmarked Perkin who ran into the penalty area and pushed the ball past goalkeeper Mike O'Hara who promptly flattened him. Vojtek scored from the penalty.

George Cross and Altona, will be played on 20 July.

Vrzina was firm in his com-mitment to take no nonsense from his experienced players. "If we are to go down then we will go down without them," he said.

YOUTH REPORT from COCA-COLA BOTTLERS

WHAT'S GOING N?'—PARTO

Victorian State League club Frankston has one of the most promising young full backs in the land in Sean Parton.

Sean came to Australia Sean came to Australia about 10 years ago from Birmingham, England, and started his junior career with Springvale where he played until crossing to Slavia to gain the experience of a full season in the State League reserves.

Sean then gained senior experience with Dandenong City in Metro Division One before joining Frankston half way through last season.

Trying to break into the first team was not an easy task as Frankston was successful at the time and sat at the top of the State League ladder.

MAN

But Sean waited for his chance and when it came he grabbed it firmly with both hands and never looked back.

He now is recognised as one of the best overlapping full backs in the league and his consistency and determination are carrying him to new heights as he successfully takes on some fine wingers week by week.

But it is the PSL that Sean has his sights on, like so many of our promising youngsters.

And it is a PSL player, Jamie Paton of Heidelberg United, Sean rates as his hardest opponent.

"Yes, you could say that Jamie Paton is the toughest opponent that I have been up against because under Len McKendry Paton has sharpened his ability to come off a defender and this is now one of his strengths."

As for Sean's representative future he sees his place in the Victorian youth team as a stepladder to representative honours with the Australian youth side.

Yet Sean feels uncertain as to the possibility of gaining a place in the Australian eleven to contest the 1981 World Youth Cup finals.

Frankston City held a junior night for the young players of local clubs last week and the response was so good that the Frankston clubrooms were packed.

Martin Chivers was the principal guest and he was asked questions about his footballing career by many enthusiastic youngsters.

Big "Chiv" really took to the kids and afterwards he said how pleased he was at their response and how rewarding an experience it was for him.

Frankston presented a film on the 1979 World Youth Championship finals held in

The young audience marvelled at the skills of the winner, Argentina, and Diego Maradona and Diaz showed the kids what the term "the young champions" has come to mean in recent times.

Tombidis 'right age'

The Australian Soccer Federation issued a statement this week dispelling rumors that Paul Tombidis is too old to qualify for the world youth championships next year.

The ASF said Tombidis' birth certificate states he was born on September 22, 1981, which makes him eligible for the championships.

Tombidis, top scorer of the recent national titles in Canberra, plays for Kingsway Olympic in the Western Australian State League.

After months of dry weather, beavy, daily rain made skillfull soccer idmpossible and most games were typical Cup ties - kick and rush.

Highlights were Apaleta's and Davidson's hatricks for Glenorchy Croatia, Rimma's two penalties for Devonport and Metro taking Radio Rentals State League side Hobart Juwnuts to extra time.

Launceston Matric leaf Burnie Utd by 2-1 at half time but lost 4-3.

In an even contest for the first 20 mins, it was no sur-prise when Andy Robinson scored from a direct corner to put University into the lead. Brighton who never really 80 sec after the start of the second half Perry Foster took a corner for Balton to head.

Ten minutes later Terry Bannagan was booked for dissent and having a free kick given against him after a good move started by Alan Burton to Bannagan and onto lan Parker's head saw a good save by the goalkeeper.

The winner came in the 22nd minute when a long kick by goalkeeper Bob Harrison beat the University defence for Brett Anderson, substituting for Tony Dickinson, to break through and score. Result 2-1.

WHITE EAGLES 2 LAUNCESTON UNTD 1

White Eagles played its new signing from Victoria, Mick Brazil, and showed marked improvement to win this tie against former Radio Rentals State League side Launceston Utd.

At half time it was 0-0 but two goals by Peter Sherman was enough to win this, despite Chris Gambles goal 10 minutes into the second half for Laun-ceston Utd.

This win could be the turn-ing point for White Eagles, more so as Ken Worden has settled his differences with the club but it has lost Andy Heap to Brighton ICL.

EMPATARON LOS MOROCHOS GAUCHOS Y CHARRUAS ... MATE Y TORTAFRITAS

PELIGRO DE GOOOLLL

– Oscar Perea

No entendemos porque los hicieron jugar

Los Ingleses inventaron la Diplomacia, el arte como dijera "Pata e' Catre", para engrupir a la gilada con una sonrisa. I como el futbol tambien lo inventaron ellos, asi estamos. El pasado lumes 30 se cerro el LIERO DE PASES, que en este bendito medio, esta abierto de DICIEMERE a JUNIO, y los cam pecmatos empiezan en MARZO o AERIL. Es decir, ellos tienen rodo arregiado como para que el equipo de los senores que mandan en el estofado, andan mal, salen corriendo a buscar jugadores y asi se arregian "A LA INGLESA". Eso perjudica a los clubes menos poderosos y en nuestro caso específico en la DISTRICT LEAGUE o PROVISIONAL LEAGUE. Pero no nos perjudica corque el Tescorre saleza a buscar jugadores y astar la DISTRICT LEAGUE O PROVISIONAL LEAGUE, Pero no nos perji dica porque el Tesorere salga a buscar jugadores y gastar todo lo que deberia temer, no para nosotros es peor. Los : glamentos ayudan para que el "MATCHISMO" y el "VEDETISMO" de algunos tenga en jaque a el equipo, los companeros, el DT y hasta el propio CLUB. Porque ante el menor problema, ante lo que no sale como ellos quieren surgue la amenaza. "O SE HACE ASI O ME VOY COM LOS....".

Y ahi es donde los Clubes, y los dirigentes por falta de vi sion TAMELEN ENFRAN EN EL MANOSEO. Porque si cualquiera pue de hacer "camarilla" y destruir en pocas horas el trabajo de mucho tiempo, "TIRANDOLE LA CAMASETA EN LA CARA A TODOS" seria muy bueno para el futbol y los clubes que los dirigen tes de los CUUBES a los cuales "ILAS ENTRELLAS ENCIANAS" se effecen, LES DIJERAN QUE NO. QUE ESPEREN LA PROXIMA TEMPORA ofrecen, LES DIJERAN QUE NO. QUE ESPEREN LA PROXIMA TEMPORA
DA. Pero, la ceguera del egoismo, la falta de calidad dirigente y la incapacidad de ver el futuro, ayudan a quienes no debieran ser ayudados. El reglamento tiene la culpa. Todos los que siguen el futbol veran como a partir de esta semana como por arte de magía, todo el mundo respeta al tecnico, llega temprano, va a los entrenamientos y solo dice que SI.
Lo hace sabiendo que ahora y hasta diciembrele pueden decir que no JUEGA, y Bo LE PUEDE TIRRE LA CARRA A HADIE...- El reglamento perjudica tambien a los MUCHOS, MUCHISIMOS jugadores, personas de bien y exelentes deportista que por propia conducta y calidad humana deben participar de todo este, porque ellos por sus valores HUMANOS Y MORALES serian incapaces de tirarles la camiseta a nadie.

Algum dia el futbol crecera y los senores que mandan, seran suplantados por otros dirigentes y desde la SOCCER FEDERA-TION PARA ARAJO, el futbol sera lo que debe ser.

Uoci ovog poraza JUST je imao tesku unutrasnju buru, koja se zavrsila odlaskom Ollertona u Makedoniju, dok je O'Reilly isto tako na transfer listi, a Hazabent i Jovanovic su zvanicno povredjeni. Pored toga, novajilaj Ivan Zafran se otismuo za Adelaidu u novu pecalbu pre nego sto je ista pokazao. U Australilj je skoronesec dana, ali nije zaigrao ni pet minuta, a goroe je od zelje da pokaze sta i koliko zna Medjutim, ta je zelja brzo splasnula njegovom krivicom. poraz od prosie subote i povrata samopouzamje.

Zbog nevremen Makedonija nije odigrala svoju utakmicu protiv Frankstona, dok je Croatia osvojila dva vazna boda u Sunshine-u i odlepila se od svog najveceg konkurenta. Iduce nedelje Makedonija je opet slobodna, dok Croatia igra protiv Western Suburbsa, koji ne preistavlja ozbiljnog protivnika, iako je sa njim na pocetku sezone sretno izvukla jedan bod. Makedonija, koja se iznenada pojacala sa Olletrionom, bice okupirana sa drugom brigom, koja je isto tako vazna. Danas igra za Philips Kup u Kanberti. Ambicije su neskrivene i sa malo vise sportske srece Makedonija se moze probiti u cetvrt-finale.

Prosia nedelja je bila tmura za J.U.S.T., bas kao i vreme kada je odigrana dolozena utakmica sa Camberrom City. Kada kola krenu nizbrdo, onda nesreca dodje sama i nepozvana. Samo jedna lokva, jedan metar u precniku, bila je dovoljna da oduci sudbinu "plavih". Tu se je necekivano zaustavila lopta, koja je bezazleno hitala u ruke Bolanda. Za pravo cudo, nigde JUST-tovog igraca, iako je bila u pitanju njegova polovina. Igrac gostiju je pritrcao i uputio je loptu u praznu mrezu. Pre tosa, a i posie loga JUST je odavao utisak pobednika, ali to je bilo sve varljivo, jer su "plavi" napadali sa pola snage. Osim dve sanse na pocetku drugog po-luvremena J.U.S.T. mista nije uradio da izvuce neresen rezultat, iako je na oko bio opasniji. Sa dva napadanca, koji su sinjel saupa, tesko je moglo nesto da se uradio. KEILOR/AUSTRALIA — ALTONA GATE 0:0. Zahvaljujuci odlicnoj igri odbrane, Altona Gate je izvukla vazan bod u gostima protiv neugodnog protivnika. Vreme je bilo ocajno, a teren suvise tezak za navalu, koja se ovog puta zalagala vise nego obicno. DONCASTER ROVERS — FOOTSCRAY/J.U.S.T. nije odigrano, jer je sudija Djokica Stojkovic opravdano odlozio susret zbog igralista, koje je bilo prepuno vode i blata i nemoguce za igru. Bilo je govora da Hegedis predje u Carlton/Srbiju, a Jene Kalmar u Melbourne, ali su obojica odustali, dok Biro jos uvek pokusava da predje u "Plavi Dunav". MOONEE PONDS — VOJVODINA 4:0 (0:0). Vojvodina je igrala slabo i neborbeno, jer su se igraci plasili vode i blata. Mnogi su heli da sacuvaju ciste gacice i u tome su speli. Nije onda cudo sto je domacin pobedio sa visokom rezultatom. COLYER WATSON — TARAX 1:1 (1:0). Strelac za Tarax Aldo Jakovincic, kome je Ibro Hadziaddic nabacio tacno na glavu pred samim golom, take da je promasaj bio skoro nemoguc. Tarax je igrao bez pet standardnih igraca, ali je ipak izvukao dobar rezultat. Jedno vreme, na pocetku igre, bilo je tesko za Tarax, ali je Spasoje Mitrovic sa gol crete nekoliko puta izbio loptu u polje. Drugo poluvreme pripada Taraxu. Najbolji igraci: Frank Micic i Braca Andrew i Sandor Kazi.

Osijek kicks ref.

BELGRADE — The final league match of Yugoslav champion Red Star Belgrade was abandoned when its opponents kicked a lineaman and the referee here.

When Red Star scored eight minutes before halftime to extend its lead over Osijek to 3-9. Osijek players appealed for offside.

The referee tried to order off one player who had kicked a line-sman but Osijek players, for whom defeat meant relegation, surrounded the referee and one of them kicked him too.

Players and officials pleaded in vain for the referee to allow the match to be resumed.

Results of final round matches: Dinamo 2 Sarejevo 2, Buducnost 0 Cellik 0, Vardar 2 Nepredak 1, Radnicki 2 Rijeke 0, Red Star 3 Osijek 0 (abandoned after 37 minutes), Zeljecincar 1 Sloboda 1, Vojvodina 1 Borac 0, Olimpija 3 Velez 1, Hujek 4 Pertizan 1.

Spaniards sparkle, Houghton to Greece watching the European Championship matches, here are brief notes

WEST GERMANY: Had the class, poise and confidence but nearly came a cropper against Greece with its arrogance.

BELGIUM: For a team which said it had no hope before the matches started, it was a revelation. Beat the Ital-was a revelation. Beat the Italians at their own game – an iron curtain ring in defence.

ITALY: Best markers of the championship but brutal in their tackling and too many players over-reacting to decisions. Nevertheless a highly ideas.
CZECHOSLOVAKIA: Produced brilliant on-the carpet but the legacy of being only part-timers until not long back took its toll.

west Germany's draw with Greece in the European championships was the first point they had dropped in their past 13 international matches. And prior to the European championship final the West Germans were unbeaten in their past 18 games.

Cologne are reported to be on the verge of offering Notingham Forest 500,000 pounds for defender Viv Anderson.

Ladislato Kubula, the Spanish international manager, is leaving to take over as team boss of Barcelona.

Queens Park Rangers, who sold Barry Wallace to Tulsa Roughnecks last season for a 40,000 pounds fee, have reported the American club to both the Football League and FIFA after getting two 20,000 pounds cheques which have both bounced.

Derby, down to the Second Division, have 500,000 pounds to splash out on a defender and may try for Southampton's Chris Nicholl.

MONEY MAGIC with Michael Morley

Getting together to play the pools could prove to be one of the smartest moves you ever have made. For as little as $1.50 a head for six players I will explain how you can cover 18 matches in a plan that carries a good over-all guarantee. Details for this entry will be given at the end of the article.

The overall guarantee with this plan is that you can allow up to a 30 per cent margin of error in your selections and still be assured of at least some minor dividends. In other words — if you can find nine score draws from 18 matches — you will be certain to get some sort of return. It's true there are millions of ways in which eight score draws might fall but by using 18 games which is almost a third of the match list — you can play with moderate stakes for a really good chance of success.

For most weeks of the Australian season I've been suggesting that you take your selections from all States and this week would be no exception. Every division on this week's match list contains at least two games that look certain of going close and my best 18 selections on current form are:

Altona Gate, Dandenong, Waverley, Ringwood U., St Albans, Yallourn, Corlo, Keysboro, Azzurri, Gosnells, Os-borne Pk, Graylands, Wanneroo, Beo-grad, Campbelltown, West Fields, Windgrad, Campbellt sor and Merton.

Strongest looking home winners are Fawkner, Frankston Pines, Mornington, Inglewood, Spearwood, Melville, Swan Ath., Para Hills, Adelaide C and Whyalla.

As mentioned, my planned entry for this week covers 18 matches, if you would like to try this bet 1 have left a blank line in the diagram for your selec-tions.

It will involve six entries of system 12 and at $1.50 each the investment is $9.00.

Select your 18 matches and enter them in any order like in the diagram. When you have entered all your selections on the blank line use the corresponding X's as set out in the diagram as you transfer your match numbers on to the entry forms.

- With eight score draws in any one of the six system entries you would be certain of a first dividend.
- Should you have nine score draws falling anywhere among your 18 selec-tions you would be assured of seven of them in five lines of the entry.

Until next week, good luck and good punting.
